This form will be used only if you, as an Army employee or as an applicant for Federal employment, think you have been treated unfairly because of your race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, mental or physical handicap, or reprisal. If you have any questions concerning the completion of this form, you may contact the Equal Employment Opportunity Officer (EEOO) at your activity.

Your written, formal complaint must be filed within 15 calendar days of the date of your final interview with the EEO counselor. If the matter has not been resolved to your satisfaction within 21 calendar days of your first interview with the EEO counselor and the final counseling interview has not been completed within that time, you have a right to file a complaint at any time thereafter up to 15 days after the final interview. Your written formal complaint must be filed within 15 calendar days of the date of your final interview with the EEO counselor. This time limit may be extended if you can give a good reason for not submitting the complaint within the 15 calendar day limit.

You may have a representative at all stages of the processing of your complaint. You or your representative should personally file your complaint with the EEOO of your activity.

If your complaint is accepted, you will have an opportunity to talk with an investigator from the U.S. Army Civilian Appellate Review Agency and to give him or her all the facts you have which you believe will support your complaint. If your complaint is rejected, you will be advised in writing of the reason(s) and advised of the right to appeal. Upon completion of the investigation of your complaint, you will receive a copy of the investigator's report and an attempt will be made to resolve the complaint then.

If your complaint cannot be settled informally on the basis of the investigation, you may request a review of your record by the Department of the Army Director of Equal Employment Opportunity, or you may request a hearing at this stage. If a hearing is requested, it will be conducted by an administrative judge designated by the EEOC. The findings, analysis, and recommendations will be forwarded to the Director of EEO for decision. You will be advised by the Director of the decision and provided a copy of the case record.

If you are not satisfied with the Director's decision, you will have the right to appeal to the Office of Review and Appeals of the EEOC, P.O. Box 19848, Washington, D.C. 20036, within 20 calendar days after receipt of the decision.
